To Whom It May Concern,

I have known Brian and Wendi Bailey since about the year 2000. That relationship has been both personal and professional. We attend the same church as the Baileys and are active in some of the same classes.

My wife and I are also Realtors®, and we have had many opportunities to work with the Baileys on real estate transactions. They are very professional in their services and thorough in their actions. They care a lot about people and are of the highest character and integrity.

I can recommend the Bailey Team without reservation.

Regards,
